The Big Five I'm Alive

This is the third song poem that I have written. I really hope you enjoy this story. I beg you, R&R. I need to know how I am doing with these stories. I love writing so expect more from me.

So this is the story. I have gathered the big five so that they can sing their feelings out in a song. This is the song I'm Alive by Becca. Naruto is on the drums it suits his outspoken and kind spirit. Jack is on the electric guitar. He is a free spirit and so is the electric guitar. People don't realize that in rock bands, the guitars and drums are most important. Percy is on a regular guitar. The original guitars are easygoing and gentle like the sea. Hiccup is on the bass guitar. People don't realize it, but the base guitar is very important, exactly like Hiccup. I hope you like it. Harry is on the keytar. It is an instrument not usually recognized except in dubstep, but it takes control to play it, and it is an amazing instrument.

Jane (Jane is not my real name) felt that it was time for the big five to meet. It was time for them to meet people who have had the same crushing on their shoulders destiny and broken past hanging over their heads. They needed to talk to someone with experience and Jane knew she was only a temporary solution. She was not going to let them suffer again. Defenses were up when they met, but after a bit of explaining, they began to calm down, though they have all been through lies, so they kept their defenses up. (This is Hiccup 5 years older so his defense was the flaming sword.) Jane showed them to the band room. After they some trial and error (Jane needs to remember never to let Jack near a trumpet, he got his lips stuck on the mouthpiece.)

Jack Frost: Nothing I say comes out right,

Percy Jackson: I can't love without a fight,

Hiccup Haddock: No one ever knows my name,

Hiccup Haddock: When I pray for sun, it rains.

Harry Potter: I'm so sick of wasting time,

Harry Potter: But nothings moving in my mind,

Naruto Uzamai: Inspiration can't be found,

Naruto Uzamai: I get up and fall but,

All: I'm Alive, I'm Alive, oh yeah

Between the good and bad is where you'll find me,

Reaching for heaven.

I will fight, and I'll sleep when I die,

I'll live my life, I'm Alive!

Hiccup Haddock: Every lover breaks my heart,

Harry Potter: And I know it from the start,

Jack Frost: Still I end up in a mess,

Percy Jackson: Every time I second guess.

Naruto Uzamai: All my friends just run away,

Harry Potter: When I'm having a bad day,

Naruto Uzamai: I would rather stay in bed,

Jack Frost: but I know there's a reason.

All: I'm Alive, I'm Alive, oh yeah

Between the good and bad is where you'll find me,

Reaching for heaven.

I will fight, and I'll sleep when I die,

I'll live my life, I'm Alive!

Naruto Uzamai: When I'm bored to death at home,

Percy Jackson: When he won't pick up the phone,

Hiccup Haddock: When I'm stuck in second place,

Harry Potter: Those regrets I can't erase.

Jack Frost: Only I can change the end,

Naruto Uzamai: Of the movie in my head,

Percy Jackson: There's no time for misery,

Hiccup Haddock: I wont feel sorry for me.

Hiccup Haddock: I'm Alive, I'm Alive, oh yeah

Jack Frost: Between the good and bad is where you'll find me,

Harry Potter: Reaching for heaven.

Percy Jackson: I will fight, and I'll sleep when I die,

Naruto Uzamai: I'll live my life, ohhhh!

Jack Frost: I'm Alive, I'm Alive, oh yeah

Harry Potter: Between the good and bad is where you'll find me,

Naruto Uzamai: Reaching for heaven.

Hiccup Haddock: I will fight, and I'll sleep when I die,

Percy Jackson: I'll live my life,

All: I'll live my life,

I'm Alive!

After the song ended Jane gave each of them a pendant that would transport them back into the Dimension Room. Jack's had a light blue string that had half a snowflake and a model of his staff attached diagonally to it. Hiccup's had a dark green string that had half of an orange-red flame with the Night Fury symbol attached to it. Naruto's had a light orange string with half a sun, and an orange fox attached to the half sun. Harry's had a light red string that half half wand sparks and a phoenix symbol attached to it. Percy's had a dark blue string with half a wave, with a model of Riptide attached to it. They agreed to meet monthly or when they were in trouble that they couldn't handle. Jane asked them to call her DK.

End file.
